

SOAF WYATT
make-up artist

Congratulations on your engagement! Thank you for considering me to be your make-up artist for your wedding

The prices below reflect over ten years of make-up knowledge, not only in weddings but also film, television, commercial and photoshoot work

This variety of experience has allowed me to be able to confidently say I've worked with almost every skin tone and type

Wedding trials are highly recommended, and everyone who has their make-up applied by me on the wedding day will receive a complimentary mini touch up kit (foundation, setting powder & lipstick)

Not sure if you want make-up on your wedding day? You do not have to! However, with your family and friends all dressed up and a photographer at the ready, I find wedding parties usually feel more comfortable with a little something – please ask me about natural wedding make-up looks!

I also offer make-up consultations for those who are interested in applying their own make-up at £75 per session, per person

You can't have good make-up without good skincare, therefore, all my make-up looks begin with a skincare routine, personalised to your skin's individual needs

The products I use for this are by Tropic Skincare – an organic, chemical free, cruelty free skincare and make-up company

Interested in false lashes? I offer *individual lashes for no added cost. If you would prefer full lash strips, these need to be provided by you or by me for an additional cost *individual lashes are 5 hairs per piece and glued on the same way as false lash strips

On the day

Bride: £120

Bridesmaid: £85

Mother of the bride/groom: £75

Friends and family: £75

Flower girl: £15- children up to 12 years old, just a quick splash of colour or sparkle to help them feel included on your big day

Trial sessions

Bride trial session: £75

Bridesmaid trial session: £75

Friends & family trial session: £75

Trial sessions not only provide opportunity for us to meet each other properly, but they also allow us to discuss, in detail, your requirements for your wedding day make-up, to ensure a stress-free, faster paced morning to avoid any delays

Trials are not a requirement, but they are highly advised

Whether you wear make-up and have an established look you're comfortable with, or are not really sure what suits you, I can help you find the perfect look for your wedding

In your trial session I will begin by discussing skincare with you, to determine the perfect base for your wedding make-up. We will be able to try out a selection of products to make sure you're comfortable with the finished result and I will make a note of everything used, to ensure I have the correct products with me on the day. I will also request to take a photo of you – this is purely for reference and will not be kept after your wedding day or used for any type of promotion or portfolio – however, if you enjoyed having me as your make-up artist I do welcome wedding photos to add to my portfolio, so that I can share my work with future couples

Trial prices are based on 90 minutes for a bride and 1 hour per bridesmaid (for example, 1 bride and 2 bridesmaids will be 3.5 hours and cost £225)

It is advised that trials are booked for the morning, and that you wear the make-up for the rest of the day so that we can address any alterations you may want to make

I advise all first trials are booked no later than three months prior to your wedding date
Please note, I will invoice you for your trial separately to your wedding day and this invoice will include a non-refundable booking fee of 25% of your wedding day total, which you must pay to secure your wedding date

Please note, my travel allowance covers up to 15 miles from my base. Any locations over 15 miles will incur additional fees of 0.45p per mile, which I will add to your invoice
